PUBLISHER'S NOTE.

Until the middle of December last it did not come to the knowledge of the Publisher of the Directory for 1890 that the Publisher of the Directories for the preceding years was not to undertake the work on this occasion. It was, therefore, impossible that the Directory could appear within weeks of the usual time; and this, combined with other disadvantages connected with such a late start, made the publication of it a difficult and somewhat hazardous undertaking. Nevertheless, an Annual Directory is such a necessary thing for the convenience of all classes of the public that the Publisher took the work in hand in the hope that any little shortcomings might be overlooked in the fact that a Directory for 1890 had been published at all. The Publisher has to thank the Merchants and others who have so liberally supported him in the way of advertisements, as also the officials of the Societies and other organizations in town for the help they have afforded him in getting up the local information.

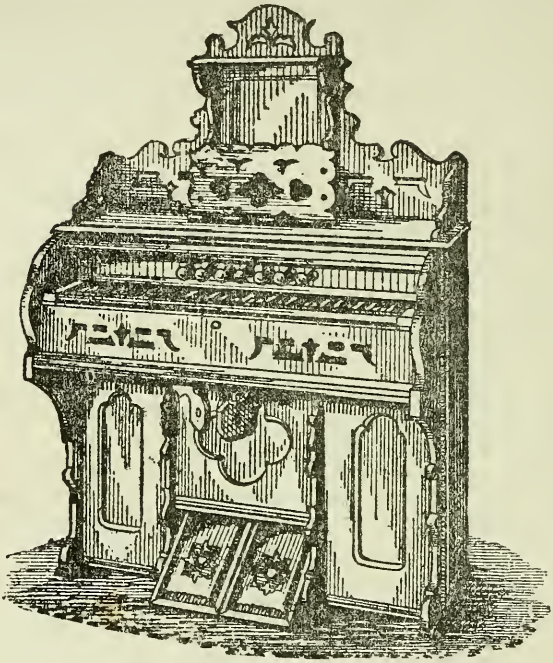
THE ORIGINAL

PEOPLE'S ORGAN,

The Most Wonderful Value ever Offered,

In Handsome Solid Walnut Case, with raised Back and Music Cabinet.

NETT CASH PRICE, £8.



NETT CASH PRICE, £8.

4 FEET 9 INCHES HIGH.

7 STOPS and 2 KNEE SWELLS—including Diapason, Gamba, Dolce, Diapason (Bass), Vox Humana, Bass Octave Coupler, Treble Octave Coupler, Grand Organ, and Swell Organ (Knee). Superb tone.

This Organ must not be confounded with the Rubbish usually offered at low prices. It is a GENUINE ORGAN with a good variety of Stops, producing a Tone, which for SWEETNESS and POWER cannot be surpassed by any other Organ under double the price. Notwithstanding the many IMPROVEMENTS made on this Organ since it was first introduced by us two years ago, and the INCREASED COST OF PRODUCTION, we have not increased the price. The Sale has far exceeded our expectations.

Also on the Instalment System at Moderate Rates.

TO THE INHABITANTS OF FORFAR & DISTRICT.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

There was no Hatter in Forfar, later than 1876, until I commenced business in 1883, now Seven Years ago. My great success is a proof of my abilities to please the public Having had over thirty years practical experience in the principal Hat Factories of Great Britain, I am prepared to supply you with every description of Hat, equal to any supplied in Edinburgh or London, and at Prices much under those which are usually charged in these places.

The following ought to be a guarantee of my practical experience :—BENNETTS, of London ; WOODROW and SONS, Lancashire ; and for 11 Years with CRAIG CHRISTIE, and STEWART and CLAPPERTON, Edinburgh.
